NEWSLETTER NO 80 (March 1998)

BUFFET AND PRIVATE VIEW OF THE HOUSE, COLLECTIONS AND GARDEN AT LOTHERTON HALL, NEAR ABERFORD ON WEDNESDAY 22 APRIL 1998, 6.30 FOR 7.00

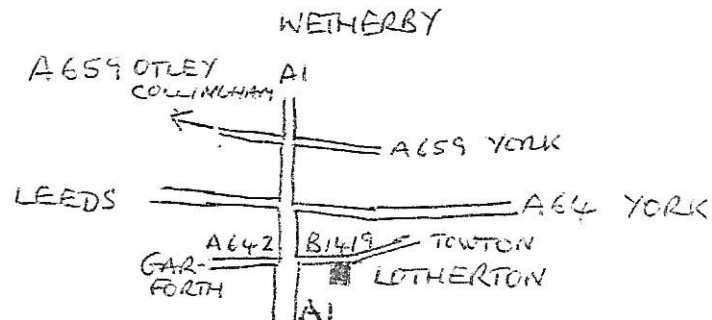

A special evening has been arranged for members at Lotherton Hall, a small country house museum set in gardens and parkland. The house contains Gascoigne family heirlooms, together with many other treasures, mainly of the Victorian period including spectacular displays of fashion and Oriental art. The evening will start with a buffet and wine reception in the Oriental Gallery, followed by a short introduction to the house and a chance for everyone to view the collections. Given a fine evening the Edwardian garden is well worth exploring. The cost per person has been kept to a modest £6.50 for what is certain to be an immensely popular event. Please support this function by coming yourself and inviting a friend - an ideal chance to introduce potential new members. There is ample free car parking nearby. If you require a lift from Otley please let John Holdsworth know when you return the booking form. No tickets will be issued.
